ECNL GIRLS LAUNCHES REGIONAL LEAGUE - NORTHWEST PACIFIC

RICHMOND, VA (April 27, 2021) – The ECNL Girls is thrilled to announce the continued expansion of the ECNL Girls Regional League platform for the 2021-22 season with the inclusion of eight teams to create the ECNL Girls Regional League - Northwest Pacific.

“Continued expansion of the ECNL Regional League reflects the growth of soccer and the rising competition level year in and year out,” said ECNL Girls Commissioner Jen Winnagle. “With the creation of the ECNL Regional League - Northwest Pacific, athletes from the region will be able to test themselves against new talent, embark on new opportunities and participate in an environment designed to challenge themselves and reach their full potential.”

The ECNL Regional League - Northwest Pacific will feature divisional competition and a robust regular season schedule for all clubs participating in the U15-U18/19 age groups. This expansion will continue to grow the Regional League platform and enhance overall competition.

The eight clubs participating in the ECNL Girls Regional League - Northwest Pacific are:

Northwest Pacific

Crossfire Premier

Crossfire United

Eastside FC

Pacific Northwest

Portland Thorns Academy

Seattle United

Snohomish United Washington Premier

Currently the ECNL Girls Regional League includes 13 leagues, with more than 1000 teams across the United States. Continued ECNL Girls Regional League expansion, Regional League showcase events and national postseason competitions will be announced at a later date.
